We All Win: Fanagalo™ 2

Business Lessons From the African Bush

Reverse Mentoring & High Performance Teams (Film 2 of 2) LICENSE FEES

We All Win: Fanagalo:™ a powerful learning tool for reverse mentoring and high performance teams. Sharing knowledge and finding ways to connect and to innovate requires every individual to master their fears and surrender control so everyone can win. But like paths in the bush commitment is not a one-way street. The new model for change and innovation starts with deep commitment to developing talent and keeping it.

Create High Performance Teams of Dynamic Joyful Self-Learners Committed to Innovating, and Connecting to Solve Problems—All While Sharing Knowledge to Help One Another Take Risks
Take a fast and fun ride on a jeep through the African bush and be inspired by unique stories from brave self-learners who master their fears every day and choose to take bold risks as they work together in tight teams to solve problems, surprise customers and innovate everyday. Discover what happens when organizations generously reward bold risk-takers and also reward all team members who share knowledge and teach skills in this musical highly inspirational and powerful tool. Stay mobile with the content review music video to keep new ideas close for inspiration every day.
